

Pádraig Rynne

Pádraig Rynne is a name that's been at the forefront of groundbreaking projects in Irish and World music over the past decade creating bands and projects such as Guidewires, Dán, Triad – a trio with Breton flautists Sylvain Barou and world renowned musician and producer Dónal Lunny, Atalntic I/O (collaborating pop music and world music (Pop sensation Michelle Chamuel, Indie/World band The Ollam and Grammy award winning Jeremy Kittel on strings).

Pádraig is well known for his experimental approach to music and his newest album "NOTIFY" released Nov '13 involves well known pop musicians Joe Dart on bass (Vulfpack, Ella Riot), Tyler Duncan on guitar (Darren Criss, The Ollam), Mike Shimmin on Drums (Aretha Franklin Band, Millish) and Jeremy Kittel on strings (The turtle Island quartet). The albums music is written by Pádraig and mixes many different time signatures he has learned over the years from his interactions with different cultural music.

Padraig's compositions can be heard in may different live performances by a variety of performers as well as many Irish music sessions and recordings. He has worked with a huge number of the most popular Irish, World and mainstream acts .... Too many to mention.

